DEUTZ-FAHR Strengthens Its Dealer Network on Germany's North Sea Coast with Family-Owned Company Imken Landmaschinen

SAME DEUTZ-FAHR Deutschland GmbH continues to expand its sales and service network in Northern Germany. By partnering with Imken Landmaschinen GmbH & Co. KG, the company is further strengthening its presence along Germany's North Sea coast together with a well-established family-owned business. The long-standing SAME dealer will now also distribute the complete range of DEUTZ-FAHR tractors, further expanding its successful partnership with the SDF Group.

Imken Landmaschinen GmbH & Co. KG is a family-owned company operated by the Schnitger family, with more than 90 years of experience in the agricultural machinery industry. For generations, customer proximity, reliability and professional service have been at the heart of the company's philosophy. Its current corporate structure has been in place since 1999. At its headquarters in Jade-Schweiburg, Lower Saxony, Imken operates a modern facility covering more than 15,000 square metres, including spacious showrooms, fully equipped workshops and an extensive spare parts warehouse. This provides the ideal foundation for expert customer support and fast, reliable service throughout the region.

"DEUTZ-FAHR distribution strategy is designed to foster synergies with dynamic, growth-oriented partners, irrespective of their size", says Alessandro Sapio, Managing Director & spokesperson of SAME DEUTZ-FAHR Deutschland GmbH "With Imken Landmaschinen, we expand a long-standing cooperation and partnership. Family-owned businesses like Imken are distinguished by their long-term vision, close customer relationships and exceptional personal commitment, values that also define our core beliefs. Together, we are creating the best conditions to support our customers in this strategic region of Germany with high-performance machinery and first-class service for many years to come".

By adding DEUTZ-FAHR to its product portfolio, Imken will offer customers an even wider choice of high-performance tractors and innovative farming technology. At the same time, customers will continue to benefit from the expertise and commitment of a locally rooted family business known for long-term partnerships and outstanding service quality. Imken

Landmaschinen also sees this expansion as an important step for the future.

"As a family-owned company, we think long-term for our customers, our employees and our region. By adding DEUTZ-FAHR, we are expanding our portfolio with a traditional German brand that has stood for quality, innovation and reliability for generations" say Ralf and Timon Schnitger, owners of Imken Landmaschinen GmbH & Co. KG. "Welcoming this strong brand represents an important step towards the future, enabling us to broaden our offering while providing our customers with even greater choice and tailored solutions. At the same time, we are strengthening our successful partnership with the SDF Group, a relationship that has connected us for many years."

The partnership with Imken Landmaschinen highlights the continued expansion of the DEUTZ-FAHR sales and service network in Germany. At the same time, it reinforces long-term customer support in one of Northern Germany's most important agricultural regions, combining strong regional roots, family values and the heritage of a leading German agricultural machinery brand.
